

Exit Ticket

Your exit ticket question for today is:
What is the difference between
Copyright and Creative Commons?

Now - GET STARTED!

Take your thesis builder and your keyword
search scaffold and begin your research.
You will have 30 minutes to work.
Make sure you are keeping your notes in
Notes.io!
<http://notes.io/>

What notes did you take?

<http://padlet.com/wall2ofargument>

Partner up!

Find the student with the same color folder.
Discuss with them the notes you've taken.
Did you take the same notes?
If not, what points were different?
Why? Do you agree?

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

But wait,
there's
more!

Creative Commons

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

Look for items (pictures, documents) with a
Creative Commons license!

Take a moment to review the article.

You have been given an article and a position to take on the issue.
Use the sticky note to write down what you think are the
important notes.
<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

Research - Part II

Using information responsibly

Mr. Hall's

8th Grade

Social Studies Class

Bell Ringer

How can we be responsible users of information?
Think about this during our lesson today.

What is Plagiarism?
Take a minute at your table to discuss.

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

So, what did you
come up with?
What is Plagiarism?

<http://padlet.com/wall2ofplagiarism>

So, how can you avoid plagiarizing?

By taking good notes!

So, what does good note-taking look like?

<http://padlet.com/wall2ofnotetaking>

What does good note-taking look like?
You will have 2 minutes to
discuss this at your table.
Be prepared to offer one characteristic
of good notetaking.

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

Exit Ticket

Your exit ticket question for today is:
What is the difference between
Copyright and Creative Commons?

Now - GET STARTED!

Take your thesis builder and your keyword
search scaffold and begin your research.
You will have 30 minutes to work.
Make sure you are keeping your notes in
Notes.io!
<http://notes.io/>

What notes did you take?

<http://padlet.com/wall/afargument>

Partner up!

Find the student with the same color folder.
Discuss with them the notes you've taken.
Did you take the same notes?
If not, what points were different?
Why? Do you agree?

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

But wait,
there's
more!

Creative Commons

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

Look for items (pictures, documents) with a
Creative Commons license!

Take a moment to review the article.

You have been given an article and a position to take on
the issue.
Use the sticky note to write down what you think are the
important notes.

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

Research - Part II Using information responsibly Mr. Hall's 8th Grade Social Studies Class

Bell Ringer

How can we be responsible users of information?
Think about this during our lesson today.

What is Plagiarism?
Take a minute at your table to discuss.

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

So, what did you
come up with?
What is Plagiarism?

<http://padlet.com/wall/ownplagiarism>

So, how can you avoid plagiarizing?

By taking good notes!

So, what does good note-taking look like

<http://padlet.com/wall/ownnotetaking>

What does good note-taking look like?
You will have 2 minutes to
discuss this at your table.
Be prepared to offer one characteristic
of good notetaking.

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

Bell Ringer

How can we be responsible users of information?

Think about this during our lesson today.

What is Plagiarism?

Take a minute at your table to discuss.

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

So, what did you
come up with?
What is Plagiarism?

<http://padlet.com/wall/awplagiarism>

So, how can you avoid plagiarizing?

By taking good notes!

A large red arrow points diagonally down from the top left towards the center of the slide. Red L-shaped corner brackets are positioned in the top-left, top-right, bottom-left, and bottom-right corners of the slide.

What does good note-taking look like?

You will have 2 minutes to discuss this at your table.

Be prepared to offer one characteristic
of good notetaking.

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

So, what does good note-taking look like?

<http://padlet.com/wall/awnotetaking>

Take a moment to review the article.

You have been given an article and a position to take on the issue.

Use the sticky note to write down what you think are the important notes.

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

Partner up!

Find the student with the same color folder.

Discuss with them the notes you've taken.

Did you take the same notes?

If not, what points were different?

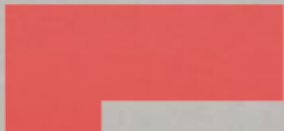

Why? Do you agree?

<http://www.online-stopwatch.com/countdown-timer/>

What notes did you take?

<http://padlet.com/wall/afargument>

But wait,
there's
more!

) with a

The background is a blurred photograph of a staircase with a blue square on the wall. Overlaid on this is a large, semi-transparent white arrow pointing downwards. In the top right corner, there is a thick, dark grey curved line. On the left and right sides of the text, there are large, stylized red brackets.

Look for items (pictures, documents) with a Creative Commons license!

Creative Commons

<http://creativecommons.org/videos/wanna-work-together>

Now - GET STARTED!

Take your thesis builder and your keyword search scaffold and begin your research.

You will have 30 minutes to work.

Make sure you are keeping your notes in
Notes.io!

<http://notes.io/>

Exit Ticket

Your exit ticket question for today is:
What is the difference between
Copyright and Creative Commons?